Kansas City Creates to Hold Visual Arts Opening at Historic Union Station Kansas City Fringe Festival Celebrates its 15th Year With Eclectic Celebration of Visual Arts

Kansas City, MO: The Kansas City Fringe Festival, a festival celebrating the avante garde of Kansas City art in all of its forms, is proud to announce our Visual Arts Show at Union Station! At this show you will experience visual art in all its forms with:

- New painting in many different styles, from Rita Blitts' internationally recognized gestural pastels to Isaac Tapia's soulful portraits.
- Ceramic and Metal Sculpture from Melanie Sherman, Rodrigo Alvarez and Tyler Marble.
- Esoteric Masks from Lesley Ravenhair.
- Beautiful storm photography from Brian Johnson and much more (for more details on the artists feel free to contact Sara Slaughter at 425-263-2779)

The festival is holding an opening gala on Sunday, July 14 from 2pm to 5pm at Union Station's main gallery. We would love to invite you there to meet the artists and enjoy local food and our activity table.
