Men On Boats

by Jaclyn Backhaus

Directed by Diane Bulan

Adventure, bravery and humorous absurdity...led by an all-female cast, Men on Boats is the true-ish story of John Wesley Powell's expedition of the Colorado River in 1869. Guided by a one-armed captain, the outlandish but loyal crew encounters various disasters, conflicts, and harrowing adventures along the way. Spinning historical, theatrical, and gender conventions on their heads, this subversive tale of ten men, four boats, and two rivers contains none of the above.
