

Burly-Q goes viral

Posted by Bob Evans

Annie-Mae Allure

Hello, Burly Fans!

Kansas City theaters have been closed since mid-March, leaving burlesque fans like yourself to get your fix by watching old acts on YouTube or streaming the Cher and X-tina movie. Well, I'm here to tell you that we are creating new content, that I like to call "Quarantainment", to keep you sane while you are socially distancing! Our venue will remain closed until at least January 2021, but there are so many performers needing work that I couldn't bring myself to take a break from producing. That's where you come in – because what is a performance without an audience to enjoy it?

Next time you are looking for something new to watch, please consider one of these productions, available to stream on-demand at www.ruderevue.com