

Faust Theatre cancels shows per city recommendations

Posted by Bob Evans

Due to the safety and concern of our patrons, as well as everyone who has worked on our team, we have made the difficult decision to cancel the remainder of our SPRING AWAKENING performances.

If you purchased a ticket for a future performance, please contact wyatt@fausttheatre.com if you would like to be issued a refund, or if you would like to donate your ticket back to the theatre (we won't insult you by saying "no").

In these times of uncertainty, share your knowledge and your love with each other. Support the arts, support your loved ones, support yourself, and stay safe. We are so proud of this show, of this entire crew, and thankful to every audience member who saw it. Until next time. "All shall know the wonder..."
