

FRINGE: 'Play That Funky Music'

As part of the 2017 Kansas City Fringe Festival, Relevance Productions returns to the Just Off Broadway Theatre, bringing three exciting and socially relevant plays to the stage!

PLAY THAT FUNKY MUSIC, WHITE BOY!
A World Premiere by Scott Cox

Starring

Scott Cox, Derek Trautwein, Trevor Belt, Mark Hill, Annie Schwaner, Leland Mosby, Allison Buell, and Sherri Roulette-Mosley

Directed by Trevor Belt

Scott Cox believes he's witnessed the second coming of... George Clinton. His friends told him the Funk-master isn't dead, but now he's a dangerous man on a divine mission. To spread the Gospel of Funk (AKA "The Capital T Truth"), Scott's mission is clear: star in a one-man show as Clinton. He must embody the spiritual guru of P-Funk – and his friends are determined to stop him. This whimsical exposé of cultural appropriation and the tyranny of the machine is Knee Deep in metatheatrical mayhem and the Funkiest Catalogue of hits this side of Plainview, NJ. Join Scott Cox, Trevor Belt, Derek Trautwein and the rest of the Relevance crew for a Funk-tastic Fringe Experience!

Showdates:

July 21 – Friday – 9:30pm

July 22 – Saturday – 4:30pm

July 23 – Sunday – 4:30pm

July 25 – Tuesday – 8:00pm

July 28 – Friday – 6:30pm

July 29 – Saturday – 10:30pm

For tickets, visit:

www.kcfringe.org