KCAT continues Friday radio shows

Posted by Bob Evans

Friday on KKFI at Noon & On-Demand
"The Terror of the Seas"
by R. Bruce Connelly

Little did Miss Seidenstricker know when she took her Second Grade to see the Tall Ships at Mystic Seaport that she would be abducted by Pirates. And little did the Pirates know that they might have captured much more than they bargained for.

This story was adapted by the author from a short story that first appeared in the Pirate Volume of "Harvey Duckman Presents."

Featuring Victor Raider-Wexler (who also directs), Nedra Dixon, Michael Ashcraft, Matt Schwader, and Scott Cordes, with vocals by Justin McCoy. Sound design and editing by Jon Robertson. Written by R. Bruce Connelly.

Tune in when Kansas City Actors Radio Theatre airs locally this Friday at noon on KKFI 90.1 FM.

Supporting KCAT and the CARES Act in 2021

Like any of the many non-profit arts organizations that have been impacted by the COVID-19 outbreak, KCAT needs your financial support if you're able to give it.

What you may not know is that newly-passed government stimulus also extends the tax benefits of the CARES Act into 2021! When you donate any amount (up to $300 in total donations for individuals, and up to $600 for those filing jointly), you will be eligible to claim a deduction of equal amount in addition to the standard deduction. For our donors who itemize, there are even greater potential benefits. As always, please speak to your tax advisor for details.

Thank you!
