

The Foreplay: An Exploration of the the Birth of Our Nation

- When building a brand new baby country, what decisions must be made? This Independence Day season, join American forefathers Thomas Jefferson, James Madison, and George Mason as they hilariously create the USA's Bill of Rights. Using modern day language and witty comparisons to today's most pressing issues, The Foreplay wisecracks its way through the messy birth of our nation. Packed with hilarious historical inaccuracy, this play will give you an entirely new perspective on the first 10 Amendments.
