Auditions for Quilters will be on Monday, January 14th at 7:00 PM

A Musical by Molly Newman and Barbara Damashek

The story of women on the frontier comes to life through their quilts. With music and dance, a woman and her six daughters share the beauty and terror, the joy, harsh challenges and abiding rewards of pioneer life. When the quilt "blocks" are assembled at the finale, the glorious, brilliantly colorful finished quilt is breathtaking and magical.

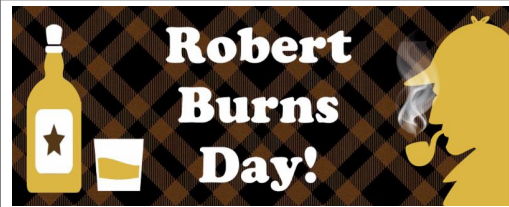

Performances: March 1, 2, 3*, 7, 8, 9, 10*

*indicates a matinee performance

Quilters is being directed by Widge Yager with

Music Direction by Susan Hires

Scotch Whiskey Tasting | 6:30 PM

Celebrate all things Scottish! Did you know that January 25 is Robbie Burns' Birthday, a festive Scottish holiday? We will celebrate the poet who immortalized the haggis and Auld Lang Syne, with a scotch tasting in the Patton Conference Room prior to Holmes and Watson. Designed to tempt the novice as well as the connoisseur, the evening will feature four single malt scotches from different regions. Led by John Doveton and Ron Renz, you are sure to gather copious amounts of information and trivia along with your spirits. Must be 21+ to attend the event.

Holmes and Watson | 7:30 PM

We are challenging even the most astute mystery buffs to solve the riddle posed by this thrilling new mystery. Holmes and Watson is a rich take on a 'locked-room mystery' full of surprise, disguise, deduction, and unexpected twists in this fast-paced thriller that promises to keep audiences on the edge of their seats.
