Theatre Lawrence presents '40's music cavalcade

Posted by Bob Evans

We Are Thankful For YOU!

Dear Friends,
We cannot begin to tell you how thankful we are for your continued support this season! Your donations, your ticket purchases, your shares, likes, and comments on social media, and your willingness to try new things, from drive-in events, to parking lot plays to online streaming, give us hope and cause for celebration. We are incredibly grateful to our community as together we work to navigate these challenging times.
HAPPY THANKSGIVING,
-from the Theatre Lawrence Staff and Board of Directors

1940's Radio Hour ONLINE ONLY!

Musical by Walton Jones | Directed by Ric Averill
1940's Radio Hour is a dynamic musical that captures the spirit of a bygone era when radio was king, the world was at war, and popular music was really good music. Join New York radio station, WOV, in December 1942 as they prepare for their Christmas broadcast to the soldiers overseas during WWII. Expect a rousing evening of back'n'forth comedic shenanigans and everyone's favorite songs of the 1940s including famous standards like "Love is Here to Stay", "Blue Moon", and "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy". Performers include Patrick Kelly, Jeremy Willmoth, Genee Figuieras, Cynthia Walker, Carly Graefe, Ryan Hamlin, Tony Console, Collier Case, Chuck Mosely and Ric Averill, with alternates Kelli Szrot. If you have a season flex package, please contact the Box Office M-F 9:00-4:30 to make your online reservation. If you have already purchased tickets for an in-person performance, a Theatre Lawrence staff member is contacting you regarding your options. To make a new purchase click on the "Learn More" link below.
Online, Streamed Performances:
December 10, 11, 12, 13
