

Women's suffrage marks centennial

Posted by Bob Evans

August 18, 2020, is the 100th anniversary of the ratification of the 19th Amendment, in which women won the right to vote. To commemorate this historic event, local playwrights Bryan Colley and Tara Varney will be presenting an online reading of their new musical, "On Account of Sex," that details the history of the women's suffrage movement.

Meet the women who persisted for over seventy years to add four words to the Constitution. Leaders of the women's suffrage movement such as Susan B. Anthony, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Lucy Stone, Carrie Chapman Catt, and Alice Paul relate their struggles and debate their cause, beginning with 1848's Seneca Falls Convention and ending with the passage of the 19th Amendment in 1920.

Join us at jupiterkansas.com for this special one-night-only presentation of the play at 7:00 p.m. Tuesday, August 18, 2020. Featuring Shelley Clark Wyche, Amy Hurrelbrink, Marcie Ramirez, and Stefanie Stevens, this centennial celebration is filled with humor, inspiration, and songs of the era.
